PREFACE.

The Publishers have continued to insert the names of those residing in Côte St Pierre, Delorimier Municipality and Petite Cote (formerly Cote Visitation Longue Pointe, Montreal West, Mount Royal Vale, Notre Dame de Grâce, Ville Notre Dame des Neiges, Notre Dame des Neiges Ouest, Outremont, Turcot Village, Villeray and Verdun in the Montreal Directory proper. Subscribers will not now have to refer to separate portions of the Directory in search of a name as all names (except those of residents in Lachine, Laprairie, Longueuil, Montreal South, Sault au Recollet, St. Lambert and St Laurent) will be found in the Alphabetical portion of the Directory. The total number of names in the Alphabetical portions of the Directory this year, including the Outskirts, is an actual count 75,340. In the compilation of the work the following results have been obtained: New names inserted 24,825. Changes made in names 17,760. Names remaining unchanged 32,806. From these figures our estimate of the population of the City and Outskirts as shown by the returns would be 339,000 or deducting 13,000 as the population of the Outskirts would leave the population of the City and Suburbs as 326,000. With this issue a handsome and correct Map of the City, especially drawn and engraved for the book, is inserted in every copy. In the Street portion, houses that were unoccupied at the time of going to press are shown by the number of the street; three calls and orders were made at each and every one of these unoccupied houses.

The Miscellaneous portion will be found as complete as ever before.

It need hardly be said that the same labor and effort to secure accuracy which the Publishers have always put forth have not been withheld in the preparation of the present edition. The wish of the Publishers is to give the latest and most correct information, and with that end in view no expense or labor is spared on the book; but it has to be taken into account that the whole of the work—compilation, printing and binding—is done between the 4th of May and the 27th of June, a period of eight weeks, so that some allowance should be made for errors or omissions.

As usual, the book is divided into five parts, viz.: (1) The Advertising Classified Directory; (2) The Street Directory; (3) The Alphabetical Directory; (4) The Miscellaneous Information; (5) The Outskirts.

This book is respectfully dedicated to its generous patrons—THE PUBLISHERS.

MONTREAL, June 28, 1898.

REVIEW OF THE PAST TWELVE MONTHS.

The year 1897 will go down to history as that in which our gracious Sovereign celebrated the sixtieth year of her reign, a longer reign than that of any predecessor. At the festivities in London, Canada was well represented, our popular Premier adding to his laurels and returning a knight and privy councillor. Sir Donald Smith was created Lord Strathcona and Mount Royal, a title which all classes joined in wishing he might long live to enjoy. The Jubilee was observed in June throughout all parts of the Empire, the decorations and illuminations in Montreal being particularly fine.

In July, with which month this review properly commences, the country was visited by a hot wave which lasted night and day for over a week, resulting in numerous deaths and a large number of prostrations through heat. The maximum temperature at Montreal was 93° on the 5th, and 90° was maintained for some days. Heavy rains subsequently followed, resulting in some cases in washouts and landslides. Earthquakes of a somewhat serious character also took place during the year.

The summer and autumn were seasonable, resulting in heavy crops, and the winter that followed was noted for the heaviest snowfall on record for very many years. Montreal was heavily visited, and the snow heaps on the roadsides were in some places ten feet high. Spring came early, nevertheless, in fact earlier, it is said, than during the past half century, and as a consequence another bountiful crop is probable.

Among the deaths of the year were Archbishop Fabre, Henry Lyman, Lady Cartier, Sir Horne, Sir Adolphe Chapleau, Sir Joseph Hickson (who died in January, 1897), J. R. Molson, Alex. Ewan, R. R. Grindley, late general manager of the Bank of British North America, and Rev. Dr. Nichols. The late Archbishop was succeeded by Mgr. Achési, who was installed 25th July, and consecrated amid much pomp on Sunday, August 8.

The chief event in the sporting world was the successful defense of the Sewanhaka by its winner, in the Glencairn II. against the Momo. The Canadian Bisley Team did well.

In literature a Montrealer published last Christmas the most popular Canadian book of the year yet produced, namely, Dr. W. H. Drummond's, "The Habitant." Mr. W. McLennan's "Spanish John" has also had a large success here and abroad, and Mr. W. D. Howells' "The False Chevalier," which promises to add lustre to his name, has just issued.

As a convention city Montreal maintained her position, having visits from the American Jewish Rabbis, the American Institute of Instruction, the Knights Templar, the Presbyterian Synod, and, most important of all, the British Medical Association. This was the first occasion upon which that body ever met outside the British Isles, Dr. J. Roddick, M.P., was president.

Montreal was visited by smallpox among the Chinese during the twelve months, and the disease never reached any proportion it claimed several victims in Montreal and Mount. Prompt action and lavish vaccination were probably the means of arresting the spread of the disease.

During the year a project was on foot to erect a steel tower in Mount Royal Park, a position which the public viewed with disfavor, and which was ultimately abandoned.

The Grand Trunk Railway also endeavored to secure the northern half of Victoria Square for its offices, but so bitter was the opposition to alienating any public square that the scheme fell through, and the Company was granted a free site on McGill Street. A still more important event in railway circles was the commencement of a rate war between the Canadian Pacific and the United States lines, as well as the Grand Trunk—a war not yet ended, and through which passenger rates to the coast or nearer competition points have been extraordinarily reduced. During the year also the Intercolonial Railway extended its terminus from Levis to Montreal, and the Grand Trunk Railway made much progress in its conversion of the Victoria Bridge.

The first fatal accident to a bicyclist through a collision with a street car took place a few days ago, when the Rev. Mr. Grant, a visiting clergyman, was killed.

Trade in Canada and the United States had been rendered dull through tariff uncertainty, but recovered upon the adoption of the new tariffs, and has since, through a number of fortunate circumstances, greatly improved. Prices of farm produce, particularly wheat, rose to a high figure, and Canada, having abundant crops, reaped material benefits. Wheat touched the dollar mark in New York on August 20, 1897, and has since risen much higher. As the Ontario wheat crop was 24 million bushels, and that of the Northwest 22 million bushels, the advantage to Canada of a rise in the price of wheat can be imagined. The exports of cheese and butter were also large.

The money markets were generally easy during the year, and, indeed, the condition of the market has led to the proposal on the part of the Government to effect a further reduction in the rate of interest paid upon Post Office Savings Bank deposits, the proposed rate being $2\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. The Banks have found it somewhat difficult to maintain their profits, notwithstanding a decided improvement in business. The following table gives the net earnings of the Montreal Banks during the year.

The failures in Canada in 1897 were as follows according to Bradstreets :

Ontario.....	866	with liabilities of	5,201,159
Quebec.....	669	" " "	5,599,743
New Brunswick	62	" " "	380,667
Nova Scotia.....	181	" " "	976,729
P. E. Island.....	10	" " "	84,292
Maritoba.....	43	" " "	470,397
N. W. Territory.....	10	" " "	78,342
British Columbia.....	66	" " "	356,600

1907

13,147,929

In 1896 the failures were 2,179 for $16,208,460, and in 1895, 1876 for $15,347,000

The failures in Montreal itself in 1897 were 285 for $4,006,854 according to Dun Co., as compared with 376 in 1896 for $6,375,128, and 321 in 1895 for $5,251,272. In 1897 the total Canadian failures in 1897 amount to 1854 in number and $4,265,155 in liabilities, so that according to this authority the failures in Montreal in 1897 about 28 per cent. of the total failures in Canada in liabilities.

The trade returns in Canada for the year ending June 30th, 1897, were higher than any other year in the history of the Dominion, as the following table will indicate :

	EXPORTS	IMPORTS
1893.....	118,564,352	129,074,268
1894.....	117,524,949	123,474,940
1895.....	113,638,803	110,781,682
1896.....	121,013,852	118,011,508
1897.....	137,950,253	119,218,609

Of this trade Montreal had a fair share as the Metropolitan City of Canada. During the calendar year 1897, she imported $47,036,196 and exported $55,156,956, or, roughly speaking, 46 per cent. of the exports and 36 per cent. of the imports of Canada passed through the Beaver City by water. This trade was carried in 796 vessels, aggregating 1,379,002 tons, an average of 1,732 tons to a vessel. In 1880, the average tonnage was only 884 tons, so that in less than a score of years the size of the vessels coming to Montreal has been doubled.

This will explain what has probably been the most important item in the history of Montreal during the past year, namely the agitation for improved wharfage facilities and the deepening of the channel between Montreal and Quebec. The history of Montreal as an ocean port has been the story of a struggle between man and nature. In the early years of the century vessels drawing 11 feet could scarcely come to Montreal. To-day the channel has been deepened to 27½ feet, and an agitation is on foot for a 30 foot channel at the least, an agitation which the low water of the past few years has emphasized. More pressing even than the deepening of the channel has been the improvement of the wharfage facilities of the port, overtaxed at least in the upper portion of the basin. A bitter controversy has been waged between the Minister of Public Works and the shipping interests of the port upon this subject, and without entering into the merits of the case it is not beyond our province to declare that, in opposing the shipping trade itself, which is practically unanimous, the Minister is either wonderfully prescient or stupendously foolish. The first object of Mr. Tarte was to force the ships to the east end of the town by curtailing the capacity of the central and western wharfage. He now seeks to burden the harbor with a dry dock in the east end, a work very desirable indeed, but not at the expense of every vessel that visits the harbor. If Montreal is ever to seize and hold her fair share of the great inland trade it will be by a policy that will decrease her port charges, and not by a policy that increases them, for in most cases it is the question of cost and not that of distance that determines the route of freight.

In this connection Montreal would do well to consider the probable effects of the proposed canal from the St. Lawrence to the Richelieu to connect with New York, for while no less an authority than Lieut.-Col. By was in favor of such a route, it will either help or injure Montreal just as trade is attracted to the port or repelled from it by governmental policy.

ARTHUR WEIR.

DIRECTORY BORROWERS.

Many are the complaints of those who regularly patronize the Directory that they rely so much by borrowers ; not the stranger or private citizen who steps into the book at the Directory, and goes out, but business men who continually need it for use, yet are too close-fisted to buy one. These are the individuals who carry off the Directory "just for a few minutes," which generally means A FEW DAYS unless paid for it before ; then you have scarcely housed it before some one else presents the request "Please lend me your Directory for a few minutes?" Perhaps you won't retain it for a week ; yet this same borrower will tell our solicitor that he has no use for a Directory, he "knows everybody" and "everybody knows him."

OTHER PEOPLE'S OPINIONS.

The pleased customer is our best advertisement. For more than twenty years we have been serving the Canadian public as dyers and cleaners, and we have on file thousands of letters bearing testimony to the goodness of our work.

Madame G. Beauchamp, 2108 St. Catherine Street, Montreal, Que.: "Perfectly pleased with your work. I am glad to know where to send orders."

Rev. James Roy, Niagara Falls, N. Y.: "Your dyeing of our curtains gave great satisfaction. We could never believe they could be made to look so well."

Rev. John Ridley, the Rectory, Galt, Ont.: "Clothes just received from your dyeing works give great satisfaction, and I forward another parcel."

We shall be glad to mail free of charge to anyone sending postal, giving name and address, copy of our booklet, entitled "As Others See Us," containing fac-simile letters from Lady Kirkpatrick, of Toronto, Mrs. Montgomery-Moore, of Halifax, N. S., Fanny Davenport, and the late Margaret Mather, besides much useful information on dyeing and cleaning.
